He lives, He lives, salvation to impart. E7 A GÂ° You ask me how I know He lives; G D G He lives within my heart In all the world around me I see His loving care And though my heart grows weary I never will despair. I know that He is leading through all the stormy blast; The day of His appearing will come at last.

Batter my Heart, Sonnet XIV, is part of a series of nineteen poems, which are most commonly referred to as Divine Meditations, Divine Sonnets, or Holy Sonnets. Holy Sonnets were published two years after Donneâ€™s death. John Donne wrote Holy Sonnet XIV in 1609, and it is found in the Westmoreland Manuscript and, later, in Divine Meditations (1935).

Normally your heart will beat between 60 to 100 times per minute. This regular rhythmic beating is dependent upon electrical signals being conducted throughout your heart. If the electrical signals within your heart are interrupted, your heart can beat too quickly (tachycardia), too slowly (bradycardia) and/or in an irregular way.

"Mother Earth" is the third single of Dutch symphonic metal band Within Temptation from their second studio album, Mother Earth. Along with the singles "Ice Queen" and "Stand My Ground", "Mother Earth" has become one of the band's signature songs and is present on the setlist at almost every concert. It was also used as the theme for the German translation of the anime X
