blind to betrayal why we fool ourselves we arent being fooled

Betrayal is the breaking or violation of a presumptive contract, trust, or confidence that produces moral and psychological conflict within a relationship amongst individuals, between organizations or between individuals and organizations. Often betrayal is the act of supporting a rival group, or it is a complete break from previously decided upon or presumed norms by one party from the others.

Weâ€™re often blind to our actual motivations. Your influence as a leader depends on whether youâ€™re â€œin the boxâ€• (in denial and self-deception) or â€œout of the boxâ€• (caring, self-aware, honest, open to others and their ideas). We engage in acts of self-betrayal when we go contrary to how we feel we should act.
