review 1: This book Block 24 is about the relationships between sisters, and the closeness that only sisters can fully comprehend. The story goes back & forth between two different sets of sisters, one present day & the other during the time of the Holocaust. Natalie & Julia are two sisters that are not very close and live very different lives.

Block 24 is a book that will stay with me for a very long time. The characters are beautifully flawed and real. The writing is raw, emotional and will keep you yearning for more. When I first picked up Block 24, I was not sure how Evan was going to be able to weave three different storylines into a book and keep my interest. Boy was I wrong.

Evan Tyler and 1 other person liked Jolene's review of Arabella Park: Season 1: "Wow, talk about getting caught up in a group of characters. When an author can pull your interest into so many characters at once, give such an intense story and keep that momentum through the entire story, that's pure awesomeness!!

BLOCK 24, by Evan Tyler was an amazing read that was so exceptional I'm having a hard time thinking of words that could possibly do it justice. It was unique, but at the same time, so raw and realistic that NO ONE could read this book and walk away without feeling a multitude of emotions.
