A weather map and its symbols are meant to convey a lot of weather information quickly and without using a lot of words. Just as equations are the language of mathematics, weather symbols are the language of weather, so that anyone looking at a map should be able to decipher the same exact information from it...that is, if you know how to read it.

To bait a fishing hook, start by tying a loop at the end of some fishing line. Then, pass the loop end up over the fishing hook and under the knot, pulling the slack out of the line so it's tight against the hook. Next, wrap the loop around the hook one more time and pull it tight to secure it in place.
